Local Matters.

Sun and Tide Table.

Sun rises tomorrow at 5.39 and sets at 6.14. High water at 6.18 a. m. and 6.47 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section fair tonight and Sunday; not much change temperature; light north to northeast winds.

THE CHURCHES.

At most of the churches the services tomorrow night will be held at 8:30 o'clock instead of 8 o'clock. The pulpits will be occupied by the resident pastors except at the M. E. Church South, where Rev. W. D. Keene, of Rockville, Md., will officiate at both services.

DEATH OF AN ALEXANDRIAN.

Mr. Robert Cohen, for the past sixty-five years a resident and business man of Washington died in that city yesterday morning, as the result of a nervous collapse. He was 73 years of age. Mr. Cohen was born in Alexandria in 1836, and went to Washington, when 8 years old. In 1847 he served as a rodmán under Randolph Coyle, surveyor of Washington city at that time. Under Mr. Coyle he worked on the boundaries of the Washington monument, and other well-known buildings there. He later entered the shoe business, which his father had established in 1838, and when his father died he became the owner of the business. Mr. Cohen was a member of the Calvary Methodist Episcopal Church, and was a Mason, belonging to Lafayette Lodge, No. 19. He was also the treasurer of the Methodist Home for the Aged. He leaves a wife, Mrs. Mary E. Cohen, and four children, Mrs. Howell Birtle, Mrs. C. O. Woodard, William K. Cohen and Robert L. Cohen. The deceased had a number of relatives in this city.

THE REMOVAL OF THE ANNEX.

The contemplated discontinuance of the train which has been running between Washington and the Potomac railroad yards, a short distance north of Alexandria, is still causing concern to the capital city considerable anxiety. The newspapers say when the train shall have been discontinued—and it will be on the 1st proximo—one hundred Washington families will be affected. Some of the men, it is stated, are already seeking homes in Alexandria, which is within walking distance of the railroad yards. One of the Washington papers says "employees who have not secured homes in this city now face a dilemma, because Alexandria cannot supply enough houses for the families that will be affected by the removal of the annex train." Any attempt to refute the above erroneous statement would be a work of supererogation as it is well known that there are plenty of houses in Alexandria to meet this influx.

AT THE WRONG BUILDING.

A lady and a little girl, living in a far away state, arrived in this city a few days ago and started off in search of points of historical interest. They soon reached the southwest corner of Cameron and Royal streets, and scanning at the old City Hotel building imagined it to be Christ Church. The visitors expressed their disappointment at finding that relic of colonial days in such a dilapidated condition, especially the Royal street side where a pavement is needed repairs. They were later told by a gentleman that they were studying a historic structure, but not Christ Church, and their steps were directed to the old landmark.

CHARTERS.

The Corporation Commission has granted a charter to the John C. Letts Grocery Company, Incorporated, Alexandria, Incorporated, John C. Letts, president; A. Brylawski, vice president; Alexander Wolf, secretary, all of Washington; Douglas Stuart, attorney, Alexandria. Capital stock: Maximum, $100,000; minimum, $1,000. Object: Grocery business.

An amendment was issued to the charter of The Famous Clothing Company, Incorporated, Alexandria, decreasing the par value of the stock from $100 to $10 per share.

ORDERED OUT OF THE CITY.

A young white man, who gave his name as Charles Newman arrived in this city yesterday from Richmond. He carried an umbrella and a stick. He was later arrested by Officer Talbot for begging on the street. Newman was arraigned in the Police Court this morning when he stated that he walked from Richmond and was en route for Baltimore. Justice Caton gave him fifteen minutes in which to leave the city, and the man started out of the courtroom, without the aid of his umbrella or stick, at a pace that would have astonished Weston.

THE MARKET.

The market this morning was fairly well supplied with country produce and prices continue to advance; indeed, for some things the record was broken for this season. Eggs sold at from 30 to 35 cents a dozen, lima beans from 20 to 25 cents a quart, corn from 15 to 25 cents a dozen, peas 12 to 15 cents per quart, tomatoes 6 to 8 cents per quart, peaches 25 cents per quart, peaches 25 cents per quart, watermelons 20 to 40 cents a piece. All meats are high and fruits are ditto.

THE WEATHER.

There seemed to be rain all around Alexandria early last night, judging from the almost incessant flashing of lightning and the occasional sound of thunder. Between nine and ten o'clock the heavens became clear when the wind changed from the south to the north. The weather today has been clear and mild.

POTOMAC LODGE.

A well-attended meeting of Potomac Lodge, No. 38, I. O. O. F., was held last night. The initiatory degree was conferred upon two candidates and two applications for membership were received. The lodge accepted an invitation from Oceanic Lodge to visit that lodge in October and confer degrees.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning.

Frank Williamson, charged with the larceny of a coat from Olad Jackson, was fined $5.

Henry Richardson, colored, charged with assaulting Arthur M. Jones, was dismissed.

Charles Newman, charged with begging on the streets, was given fifteen minutes in which to leave the city.

Sydney Lewis, colored, arrested as a suspicious character, was dismissed.

William Levell, colored, charged with drunken and disorderly conduct, was fined $5.

Harry Day, colored, charged with assaulting James Hale, was dismissed.

Robert Coleman, colored, charged with being drunk and disorderly, was dismissed with an admonition.

George May, charged with interfering with an officer in the discharge of his duty, was dismissed.

Basil Williams, charged with vagrancy, was fined $5.

Lillian Roberts, charged with a similar offense, was dismissed.

William Simmons, colored, charged with vagrancy, was dismissed upon promising to leave the city.

The owners of four cows were fined $2 each for allowing the bovines to roam at large in the streets of the city.

PLAYED THE MUTE TRICK.

A one-armed individual who gave his name as William Simmons, whose physiognomy is as black as gutta serena, has been straying about the streets recently pretending to be a mute and appealing to the generosity of people he met. He appeared in the northwestern section of the city last night where he encountered a colored man named James Hale. Simmons is a West India negro as is also Hale, and the latter, believing the mendicant to be an impostor, addressed him in his native West Indian dialect. Hale found that Simmons was by no means illiterate as was claimed, but that he had a well developed case of eschewes liguendi and could play on the month organ to perfection. Simmons was later arrested as a suspicious character and he was brought before the Police Court this morning where his lequaciousness was as a windmill. He begged, prayed and talked until he set the court and spectators into a roar of laughter, and Officer Roberts was compelled to remove him from the room. It was determined to send the darkey back to Washington whence he came.

AMUSEMENTS.

The management takes pleasure in announcing the engagement of Mr. James Young, the talented producer and director, to take charge of the vaudeville and of the performances at this house. Mr. Young is thoroughly capable, having been associated with the best vaudeville houses in this country for years. As in the past so in the future the house will produce nothing but the best and cater to the tastes of the most fastidious and will produce the cream of vaudeville, drams, playettes, etc. There will be an entire change of show every Monday and Thursday. Pictures changed nightly. As will be seen by their advertisement the Surprise Theatre will open up the season on Monday night with first-class vaudeville and stars of the first order. To anyone acquainted with the management of this house they need no recommendation. You can always be guaranteed a good show when you attend. The pictures will be entirely new and it will be the first time they are shown in this city.

ENFORCING THE COW LAW.

Four cows were found on the premises of a resident of Washington street, near Wilkes, at an early hour this morning, and were taken in charge by Officers Nicholson and Talbot. The owners of three forfeited collateral by failing to appear before the Police Court this morning, and the owner of the other animal was fined $2. Horses as well as cows occasionally roam the streets and libitum, and the police are endeavoring to enforce the law which forbids their owners to allow them do so.

FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late Harry M. Nash took place this morning from St. Mary's Church, and was attended by relatives and friends of the deceased. The services were conducted by Rev. Father Kelly. The pallbearers were the following from Columbia Lodge, No. 174, of Machinists of Washington: John McGuire, J. Oorbert, Daniel Donnelly, Thomas Frazier, Arthur Quigley and Thomas Foley. A delegation from Alva Aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles, of which organization the deceased had been a member, a tended the funeral.

The regular monthly meeting of the Relief Hook and Ladder Company was held last night. Two members were elected. It was decided to attend the Autumn festival of 8-minute Tribe of Red Men on "Firemen's night" (Thursday next). The members will proceed to Armory Hall on that occasion in uniform and in a body. The sum of fifty dollars donated the company for services at the fire at Cameron and Lee streets last May was received and the thanks of the company extended the donor.
